

Bee's

By: Alora Gonzales

Introduction

- Types of bees
- How bees help with pollination
- Different danger bees face

Different types of bees

1. Perdita minima
2. Halictidae
3. Megachile pluto

Perdita Minima

- Length
- Where they live

Halictidae

- Important pollinators
- color

Megachile pluto

- World's largest Bees
- Size

Bee's help the world by pollinating food crops and flowers

- Pollinating
- Bee's helping plant's

Dangers things to bees like Disease, Mites, and small hive beetle

- Disease
- Mite's
- Small hive beetle

Fun Facts About Bees

1. The buzzing sound made by bees comes from their wings which can beat over 200 times a second.
2. The honey that bees produce is an antioxidant that helps improve the function of the human brain.
3. 1 bee hive can produce up to 24 jars of honey in just 1 season.
4. Honeybees communicate the location of nectar to each by doing a waggle Dance.
5. Honeybees are the only insect that's consumed by humans,

Conclusion

In conclusion there are a lot of Different types of Bees that help pollinate the world. But they are in Danger from a lot of thing so there is a lot of thing you can gite Bee's safe pesticides and more friendly plants for the bees.

Works Cited

- Ly, Linda. "Easy Bee Identification: A Visual Guide to 16 Types of Bees In Your Backyard." Garden Betty, <https://gardenbetty.com/bees/>. Accessed 9 October 2024.
- "Threats to Bees — Museum of the Earth." Museum of the Earth, <https://www.museumoftheearth.org/bees/threats>. Accessed 9 October 2024.
- "Why are Bees Important?" Friends of the Earth, 22 August 2021, <https://foe.org/blog/why-are-bees-important/>. Accessed 9 October 2024.